

Won't let you rest, won't let you have an easy time

Without a moment's pause, the next one, the next one...

When I went out, I could hear conversations about the titles and contents of works from 5-10 years ago...

To me, it feels like I'm always hearing about a work from about a year ago.

Jenne's Law

The law that makes a year seem shorter for every year of your life

1 year old... 1 year  $\rightarrow$  1/1

30 years old... 1 year  $\rightarrow$  1/30th of a year

If the events of last year, 2024, felt like five years ago to me... then I would be -5 years old...
