

Asexual good luck charm

I just got some breaking news and went shopping...

There's no question about the gender, just "baby"

So it's only natural that it would be "impossible"...

Now, getting to the point, no one is as good luck charming as I am, but if we consider the probabilities, this "good luck charm" isn't completely meaningless. When I'm just doing things normally, every once in a while something untoward happens, and this is exactly what I do...

"Check and check again."

There are rare occasions when the same result occurs, so I haven't thought about stopping my "good luck charm" and maybe it's because of that I'm where I am today...
