

My guess is myself

Recently...

- ① Woshi
- ② Bath cancellation community

These are slang-like words that suddenly appeared,
and at first I didn't really understand their meaning.

① Basically, it means "fan" or "recommendation," which is a major factor in the social problem of streetwalkers.
It might have started with supporting a certain host club member.

② I don't know about ②, but it's not just that taking a bath is a hassle...

On a different note, I'm going to practice Sting's "Shape of My Heart" on piano.
(The theme song for the movie "Leon.")

By the way, when foreign tourists talk about ramen...
They're referring to "tonkotsu ramen."
